The Virtuous Woman

A wife of noble character who can find?
She is worth far more than rubies.
Her husband has full confidence in her
and lacks nothing of value.

She brings him good, not harm,
all the days of her life.

She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.

She speaks with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:

"Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all."

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Give her the reward she has earned, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.

Proverbs 31:10-12 and 25-31(NIV)

May is national prayer month. On May 1, the leaders of this great nation gather for a breakfast and a time of national prayer. This is a great idea, but not just on May 1. Every day you and I can join together to pray for the things God lays on your heart.

Prayer is the foundational practice of every Christian.

Consider, if you will, that a mighty king has adopted a child. The child knows nothing about the kingdom and what this adoption means. The child just loves running through the massive halls of the palace and barging into the throne room when the king is busy with dignitaries from other countries. Even though the young child is a bother to the king's business, the king loves the child. The child is the love of the king's life.

What about God's adopted children? People who have accepted Jesus Christ are the adopted children of Almighty God. Nothing would please God more than to have us run through the halls of his palace and burst into the throne room. Through prayer, we can get God's attention and tell him anything we want.

Life can be confusing. There are difficulties and disappointments almost every day. We can respond with anxiety, worry or even fear. Or, we can respond by running to our heavenly father. We can open our hearts and minds and God will gather us to himself with open arms.

What happens when we pray? First and foremost, we get answers. God, with command of all the forces of the universe sometimes waits until we pray to mobilize the resources of heaven. Therefore, if you are concerned about the economy with the high gas and food prices, you can worry or you can pray. If you are concerned about the Middle East, you can be fearful or pray. Only prayer connects our hearts with God's heart and His answers will be perfect and righteous. As an added bonus, the more you pray, the more peace and joy you will receive.

God bless you as you pray.

2008 Prayer for Our Nation

Dr. Ravi Zacharias
2008 Honorary Chairman, National Day of Prayer Task Force

Holy Father, in a world where so many are hungry,
You have given us food in abundance;

In a world where so many are hurting,
You offer to bind up our wounds;

In a world where so many are lonely,
You offer friendship to every heart;

In a world longing for peace,
You offer hope.

Yet, we are so stubborn and resistant.
Have mercy upon us, Lord.

Our nation is at a crossroads this year;
we look to you to be our strength and shield.

Please give us the guidance to elect one who will honor you and to respond to the wisdom from above so that our hope may be renewed and our blessings be treasured.

In God's holy name.
